My Pub of the Year 2016 – Top 10

No1 – Devonshire Cat

Although they are famous for their pale ales Abbeydale Brewery are venturing into the sour side, and also love Hop Smash and Last Rites, Lady Ra Ra and starting to get some interesting ales now.

No 2 – Shakespeare

There are 4 seating areas, there is one near the bar as you walk in, then another to the left as you walk past the bar, Ales wise there are 9 to choose from and they have a nice variety, the stronger ones % wise tend to be in this pub, they also have a keg line as well, they often feature certain breweries on all their pumps.

No 3 – Sheffield Tap

This pub is right next to the train station on Platform 1, and what a pub this is.

When you walk in you have a few seats to the right and the toilets are to the left, as you walk into another seating area the bar is down the side, you may notice a board with ales on at the side of the bar as you walk in. 11 ales are served here along with some keg lines.

No 4 – New Barrack Tavern

Loads of buses also go past the pub and also you can get the tram and get off the stop before Hillsborough and a short walk to the pub is required. They have a beer garden which has recently been upgraded, and bands regularly play there.

You have a choice of 12 ales, 2 new pumps have recently been added and they also have 2 cider pumps as well, There is also a new function room which I must say looks very nice, they have a couple of pumps in this room.

No 5 – Fat Cat

The bar area is quite small and a bit crowded but once you have your beer they have a choice of a room where the bar is, then a side room which has a open fire, and also a big beer garden with enough seats in, 10 ales behind the bar, You can follow them on Twitter : @fatcatpubS3

No 6 – White Lion

This is on London Road and new owners as well and becoming one of my favs visited pubs. The new owners have done a fab job in turning this pub around,

Plenty of seating area and some of the seating is in smaller rooms which are quite nice so if you want a nice quiet chat you can go into some of the smaller rooms.

They have 16 ale pumps around the bar and have a wide range of ales, a board is updated with latest offerings and also posted on Twitter regularly,.

No 7 – Bath Hotel

Located on Victoria Street this is easy to get to as you walk through West One and across the road and down a small narrow road, the pub is on the corner. I usually go to this one after visiting University Arms.

6 ales are available and they mainly have Thornbridge ales on 3 pumps and guest ales on the other 3 pumps,

No 8 – Beer Engine

You cannot miss the pub as it has Beer Engine in big letters on the side of the building and so popular now it needs to signs.

There are 6 ales on, and they will be rotating these which I do like. They also have a great keg selection of unusual ales..

Food wise they do a tapas menu, I have not tried them but they do look nice from what I have seen.

No 9 – Gardeners Rest

Very old fashioned pub which has no music on and no food, a great place to relax in and you can also listen to other people's conversation.

The beer garden is such a delight; it has allsorts of oddments in it, always seem to see something new there.

Another 10+ ale pub and they have 12 ales, most are from the Sheffield Brewery co. They also feature some guest ales and the owners are very friendly as well.

No 10 – The Hop

The Hop is in the heart of West One and boasts a large seating area in old fashioned building, there is also a upstairs seating area and thats were the toilets are.

9 ales are on and feature a nice selection some from Ossett Brewery and I have seen some from Thornbridge appear, plus a few from Rat Brewery, they also have a few kegs in.
